Dear Parents and Carers,

CAREERS TALK - ROYAL NAVY PILOT

On Thursday 10 October we have organised a Careers Talk from a pilot in the Royal Navy. Adam Clink recently completed a 26 year career as a pilot in the Royal Navy. Adam has been closely involved in the regeneration of the UK Carrier Strike capability from the Navy's two new aircraft carriers, including his last role as Deputy Force Commander of the UK Lightning Force, overseeing the entry of the F-35B Lightning into operational service with the Royal Navy and RAF. Adam left the Royal Navy in January and now works for Lockheed Martin UK. Adam will be happy to answer any questions following his presentation about his career experiences and opportunities that exist in military aviation and the Defence sector.

Numbers for the talk will be limited and we ask students and parents to sign up in advance and no later than Monday 7 October. We would encourage parents to attend with their son but appreciate that this may not be possible due to the early start time which has been scheduled to accommodate the speaker. Students are also welcome to attend by themselves.

We would be grateful if you could return the reply slip to the School Office by Monday 7 October if you or your son would like to attend.

Strening.

Yours sincerely
