

THE KING'S SCHOOL

GRANTHAM

Optional French Transition work

Find an aspect of French culture that interests you from the lists below and bring any work you do to King's and show it to your teacher next term!

Introduction

- Find out about a famous French person and write five things about him/her (in English).
- Choose a country where French is spoken and write five facts about it (in English).
- Find out about sport/sports people in France and write five facts about it (in English).
- Make a game to practise numbers 0-20 or 21-99 (in French).
- Draw and write a cartoon in French where people greet each other, ask each other's names and ask each other how they are. <https://www.storybird.com/>
- Create a word search in French with some of the words you know already. Word Scramble Tools \(thewordfinder.com\)
- Find out 10 typical forenames and surnames in French.
- Write an acrostic poem with the name of a country where they speak French.

The alphabet, days and months

- Invent a game to memorise the alphabet in French.
- Write an alphabet poster with different words in French for each letter. <https://www.storybird.com/>
- Write a poem with the days of the week in French. <https://www.storybird.com/>
- Teach the months of the year to somebody you know who does not know French. <https://www.storybird.com/>
- Write a poem with the months of the year, including colours and descriptive words, e.g. January is cold and white, February is crisp and bright. <https://www.storybird.com/>

Family

- Draw an imaginary family tree and label it in French.
- Write an introduction of your family, real or imaginary, e.g. My dad is called ..., he is ... years old.
- Make a domino game to learn the names of animals in French.
- Make an identity card in French for yourself or your favourite pet: name, age, address, colour, personality.
- Make a game to learn jobs in French.

Physical descriptions

- Find a picture of one your favourite people/celebrities or choose a real friend and write a brief physical description of the person.
- Write at least three descriptions of people in your family.
- Write a rap with names in French and descriptive words, e.g. Alfredo is good-looking ...

Countries

- Make a word search with at least 10 countries in it. Write what they are in English and in French. Word Scramble Tools \(thewordfinder.com\)
- Create a short presentation about a country where French is spoken with 10 facts. Presentations and videos with engaging visuals for hybrid teams | Prezi Present
- List 10 French-speaking countries and write what their currency is. Presentations and videos with engaging visuals for hybrid teams | Prezi Present

Eating and drinking

- Make a list of your five favourite French food and drink items and illustrate it.
- Create a crossword with all the words about food and drink you know in French and write your clues in French. Free Online Crossword Puzzle Maker \(crosswordspin.com\)
- Write/draw a menu with at least 10 items in French and their prices in euros.
- Draw a cartoon where people order food/drink. <https://www.storybird.com/>

Souvenirs and clothes

- Make a list of presents you could bring back from France for each member of your family and your friends (at least eight people).
- Teach the colours to someone you know who does not know French. <https://www.storybird.com/>
- Find five pictures of souvenirs or clothing, give a brief description of the items in French and convert their price into euros / the appropriate currency e.g. a new, red shirt: €20. <https://www.storybird.com/>

Food

- Make a game to learn the names of typical dishes.
- Make a list of what you usually have for breakfast and illustrate it.
- Ask five of your friends what they usually have for breakfast. Present your findings in French.
- Find a recipe for a dish and list in French all the ingredients you need to buy.
- Write a menu for your birthday meal with all your favourite food. Illustrate it.