

26 February 2015

Dear Parent/Carer,

If you are thinking of a career in teaching, then what follows may present an opportunity for you.

Train to Teach Information Evenings

Wednesday 4 March 2015: 6.30-8pm, The Priory Ruskin Academy, Grantham

Tuesday 5 May 2015: 6.30-8pm, King Edward VI Grammar School, Louth

Come along to hear about school-led teacher training programmes. The one-year postgraduate programmes – starting in September 2015 is accredited by the Lincolnshire Teaching School Alliance (of which King's is a member). This programme may be of interest to you, a relative or someone you know.

The LTSA comprises 20 secondary schools across the whole county of Lincolnshire. As an Alliance of schools, we are looking to recruit trainees in the following subjects: Maths, English, Physics, Physics with Maths, Chemistry, Biology, Computing, History, Geography, Modern Languages, RE and PE.

If you are interested in other subjects, please come along to learn more about the process for making an application in September 2016.

Our Alliance will be working in partnership with the University of Lincoln to ensure that any trainee who is selected for one of the places is supported in achieving Qualified Teacher Status and a PGCE (Postgraduate Certificate in Education) qualification.

If you are interested in learning more about the programme or in applying for one of the places within the LTSA, you are invited to attend an Information Evening on Wednesday 4 March. This will take place from 6.30pm to 8pm at The Priory Ruskin Academy.

Parking will be available on site and representatives from the LTSA will be on hand to answer any questions you may have.
