Dear Parent/Guardian

As part of your son's History A-Level studies he will be completing one piece of coursework on the causes of the English Civil War. This piece of coursework will be approximately 3000-3500 words and counts for 20% of the History A-Level. The task examines the causes of the English Civil War over a period of one hundred years. The formal teaching of this topic took place in the last term of Year 12 and your son is now starting the task of planning and drafting the essay in lessons. Fifteen hours of lesson time at the start of this term have been allocated to enable your son to plan and begin drafting this essay.

Pupils are allowed to produce a draft which we can give them feedback on, but no changes can be made to the final piece once it has been submitted. To allow your son to be successful in this part of the course they need to ensure they meet the draft deadline set to allow them to receive the advice on how to improve and achieve the best possible grade.

Please see below the deadlines for this piece of work:

Draft Deadline: Week beginning 10 October
Final Deadline: Week beginning 14 November

I hope that you have found this information useful and that it will allow you to support your son in his studies. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if you have any queries or concerns.

Yours sincerely

Kerry Milligan
Subject Leader for History
