Dear Parents/Students,

Royal College of Music Percussion Quartet

The King's School, in collaboration with the Lincolnshire Music Service, are very pleased to announce that the Royal College of Music Percussion Quartet, under the direction of David Hockings, will be visiting the school on Thursday 18 January.

The group will be holding masterclasses for the percussion pupils during the school day, and in the evening they will be presenting a concert in the Old School. The concert will start at 6:00pm and finish around 7:15pm

Joining the ensemble for the evening concert will be the percussionist Se-mi Hwang, who as well as being in demand as a solo marimba specialist, has played with many orchestras from around the world.

This promises to be a very special concert. Please return the slip below to the school office at your earliest convenience in order to avoid missing out on this event!

Tickets will cost £6 for adults and £3 for students/concessions.

Tickets are limited due to the size of the hall, and will only be available through the school office prior to the concert.

I hope that you will be able to join us for what promises to be a terrific concert!

Yours Sincerely

Matt Lond

Director of Music
